SFF17 - TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY (Part C - to be retained by the attendee)

DEFINITIONS:

In these terms and conditions of entry the following terms will have the meanings shown: The "Organisers" are the Shackerstone Festival Company Limited – "Attendees or Exhibitors" are any person(s) or organisation(s) submitting a form to the Organisers - The "Event" is the Festival or Rally described in the form – The "Form" is the Shackerstone Family Festival Entry Form – The "Space Charge" is the amount due for the space allocated at the rate shown on the form – The "Space" is the area allocated to the Exhibitor by the Organisers for the purposes of the exhibit (it also includes water space) – The "Exhibit" refers to the exhibition or stand placed on the Space by the Exhibitor, and includes displays, boats, structures, (permitted) vehicles, goods for sale, crafts or any other items belonging to, or under the control of, the Exhibitor [No car boot stands] – The "Site" refers to the whole area (including water space) under the supervision of the Organisers for the Event –

APPLICATIONS / ALLOCATION AND ACCESS OF SPACE:

- All applications must be made on the Form, which is obtainable from the Organisers. The supply of the Form does not constitute an offer of space.
- The Form must be completed with all relevant details by the Exhibitor (or his agent) and sent to the address shown, with the charge for the Space requested.
- No Space can be reserved unless a Form and payment have been received.
- The submission of the Form constitutes acceptance of these conditions. The notes on the application form also form part of these conditions
- Space is allocated at the sole discretion of the Organisers, who reserve the right to make alterations in the location at any time prior to or during the Event.
- The Exhibitor may make written requests about the location of the Space or the identity of neighbouring Exhibitors, but the Organisers cannot guarantee to comply with these, and the application cannot be conditional on these.
- After unloading, Exhibitors will be requested to park their vehicles away from the Space and the Site prior to, during and after the Event.
- No vehicle movements on site between 9.45am and 5.45pm each day unless approved by David Lock, Geoff Toon or Roger Grimsley.

USE OF SPACE / PROHIBITIONS:

- The sharing of space, except with specific written permission from the Organisers is not permitted. The content of the Exhibit must be as stated on the Form. The Exhibit must be on view to the public, and in the charge of a responsible person while the Event is open to the public. The Exhibit must be uncovered during these hours, and, if the Exhibitor neglects to do so, it may be uncovered at his risk.
- Exhibitors will comply with any rules or regulations made by the organisers.
- Exhibitors will comply with the requirements of the Fire Brigade, Environmental Health Officer and any other competent local or other authority, as well as any statutes, regulations or byelaws relating to the Site or its use.
- Exhibitors will be responsible for the conduct of their staff and their contractors.
- No party political propaganda, illegal or immoral matter may be displayed or disseminated from the Space or on the Site. The Organisers reserve the right to object to or remove such matter and/or require the Exhibitor to leave the Site. No refund will be made in such cases.
- No heating or cooking appliance may be used without agreement in writing from the Organisers and the agreement of the Fire Authority, and the provision of any protection they should deem necessary; other than those specifically fitted in caravans and boats for the purpose of heating or cooking to approved standards and for use by and for the Exhibitors staff. No Naked Flames are allowed on any stall without prior permission from the organisers.
- No loudspeaker, apparatus, other equipment or activity liable to cause a nuisance or annoyance to other Exhibitors or the public will be permitted.
- No excavations or fixing of articles or structures to any structure in the Space or on the Site by the Exhibitor is permitted without specific agreement in writing from the Organisers. Any such permitted excavations or fixing must be made good to the satisfaction of the Organisers or owners of the property concerned.

FLOATING EXHIBITS AND BOAT ENTRIES:

- All craft and other floating Exhibits shall be registered and/or licensed with the appropriate navigation authority, and comply with all relevant regulations before being brought to the Site. Any activities carried out upon the craft shall be authorised by any licence required by any competent authority.
- All guidelines from the organiser must be adhered to. Please do not arrive more than 14 days prior to the event. The mooring or disposition of such crafts shall be authorised by the Organisers. Breasting up is only allowed from the aqueduct to Br 53. No mooring alongside reeds is permitted.
- Toilets must not be discharged into the canal or other water course. Refuse, a water supply and mobile toilet facilities will be located nearby.
- The organisers shall at no time be held responsible for the loss, damage or destruction to any exhibit or property of the Exhibitor or his staff, contractors or visitors, however caused. The organisers accept no responsibility for property/personal belongings left on site prior to, during or after the event.

CANCELLATION, POSTPONEMENT OR ABANDONMENT OF THE EVENT :

- In the case that the Event, or any part of it, is postponed or abandoned by the organisers or, in the case of a cancellation, failure or curtailment of any licence, supply, agreement, services or facilities afforded to the Organisers whether due to strikes, lock-outs or other circumstances beyond their control, the organisers shall be under no liability in respect of any loss sustained or incurred by the attendee, and the Organisers shall be entitled to retain the whole or such part of all the sums paid to them as they at their absolute discretion, shall deem necessary to cover expenses incurred in connection with the Event.

WITHDRAWAL BY THE ATTENDEE:

- The Attendee may by notice in writing to the Organisers withdraw his application. If this is more than four weeks prior to the Event the deposit will be returned, subject to a cancellation fee of £10 which will be held by the Organisers for administration purposes. No refund made if cancellation is within four weeks of the Event

INSURANCE:

- The Exhibitor will be responsible for insuring his Staff and property, and take sensible precautions to guard against accident, loss or damage.
- The Exhibitor will also be responsible for the safety and conduct of his staff, contractors or visitors to the Space and for his and their property.
- The Exhibitor shall not do or permit any act other than that instructed by the organisers of the Event.
- The Exhibitor will insure with an office of good repute for Public Liability insurance cover to a limit of £5,000,000.
- The organisers shall at no time be held responsible for the loss, damage or destruction to any exhibit or property of the Exhibitor or his staff, contractors or visitors should instructions from the organisers not be adhered to.
- The transportation, lifting and/or installation of the Exhibitor's property shall be at his risk and the Organisers will not accept liability for any loss or damage of such property whether or not they are in receipt of payment for any such service.
- Floating Space Exhibitors and all boat entries must hold third party insurance to the minimum of one million pounds (£1,000,000).

ALL CARAVANS/CAMPING :

- The organisers accept no responsibility for property/personal belongings left on site prior to, during or after the event
- Caravans are requested to be in position no later than 11.00pm on the Saturday of the event unless by prior agreement. However arrival on Friday prior to the event is permitted between 9am and 7pm. All caravans must be removed by 10am on the Monday after the event.
- NO fires or BBQ's at ground level. The setting off of Chinese Lanterns, Fireworks or any item similar at any location on the site is strictly prohibited.
- Dogs on leads at all times.
- All guidelines from the organiser must be adhered to. All caravans to display 'in date' insurance and gas check certificate.
- For the comfort of everyone using the site the use of Generators is restricted to domestic generators and their use is prohibited between 9pm and 8.00am. (Unless authorised by the organisers)
- There are no designated disabled pitches and depending on the festival layout access to the event is likely to require a short walk and river crossing via a pedestrian bridge.
- It is the intention of the organisers to have entertainment on the Friday and Saturday Evenings in the Real Ale marquee. Refreshment stalls will be available from Friday lunchtime to the close of the event.
- A water supply and mobile toilet facilities will be located nearby where possible. There is no electricity supply to either the festival or caravan/camping site.

DATA PROTECTION ACT: Information given on the Form and in any other communication may in whole or part be recorded on a computer or computers, registered under the Data Protection Act of 1998. In accordance with the Act any data recorded under your name may be inspected on application to the Organisers.

JUDGING OF EXHIBITED ENTRIES: This is not a guaranteed feature for this or any future Event. The decision as to whether or not to run a competition, and for which classes of exhibit, and whether or not to make a presentation of any prizes, shields, cups or the like in connection thereof to bona fide exhibitors shall be at the sole discretion of the Organisers, who may also elect not to make any awards for a given year. Should the Festival Organisers be able to run this feature in any given year, the Judges' decisions shall be deemed final and binding.

FUNDRAISING & BENEFICIARIES: Please remember that the main purpose of this Festival, organised by volunteers, is to raise funds for local projects and groups together with supporting a number of Charities. A list of both previous and proposed recipients is published in the festival programme.
